Dear Administrator:

Congratulations, once again, on your most recent accreditation. In recognition of this achievement, we are providing you with an accreditation window decal and flag, both of which are enclosed with this letter. We hope you will proudly display both the decal and flag to show your community that you have achieved accreditation.

As an accredited school, you are part of the AdvancED network of over 30,000 schools and districts in 70 countries that are committed to continuous quality improvement through accreditation. Through our state and national offices, AdvancED offers a wide range of services to its schools and districts including workshops, conferences, web-based resources, publications, opinion inventories, and technical assistance. I encourage you to visit our Web site at www.advanc-ed.org to find out more about these services and other benefits of accreditation.

Your accreditation status demonstrates to the community your commitment to educational excellence, operational effectiveness, and continuous improvement. We look forward to working with you in maintaining that commitment.

Again, congratulations achieving accreditation and welcome to the AdvancED network.

Sincerely,

Annette Bohling
Chief Accreditation Officer

This is to certify that

Saint Frances Cathedral School
